

Denial

Edge of Dawn

Ah, terror rolls in
My fault, my fault
Ah, let the ghosts into
My world, my world

I look at you
And I think I do remember
Many things
That made my life worthwhile
At the time

Relax
You are safe here
No one will harm you
Nothing can touch you now
Relax, my dear
You are safe here
This is your shelter
Nothing can hurt you now

Listen to me
(Some stay)
Listen carefully now
(Some go away)
There was no boat
(Some stay)
There was no lake
(Some are led astray)
You never tried to save her life

That whole night was fake

I look at you
And I think I do remember
Many things
That made my life worthwhile
At the time

Now all you do is smile

I look at you
And I think I will remember
Many things
That made my life complete
At the time

Some stay
Some go away
Some stay
Some are led astray

This is your shelter
Nothing can hurt you now
Relax

I look at you
And I think I will remember

Many things

Some are led astray
