

Eyes Wired Shut

Edgewater

I've thrown away again the pills that make me
I've thrown away again the chance to want to change
I've thrown away again I'm standing all alone
I've thrown away again

Eyes wired shut running through my brain
Pulling back the skin it happens we're getting older
Eyes wired shut running through my brain
It's all the same but in the end it keeps me coming

I've blown away again the fear of failing
I've blown away again the lies that make me sane
I've blown away the chance to make it right
I want to be I want to see I want to make it back to me

'Cause I just waste away the chance the time to face the change
To make myself to think that things are better
