Lifter

Edgewater

Down a road less traveled and I see my purpose in front of me And it's simple and It's gentle I found Down a road less traveled and I feel my conscience running deep And it's simple but it's mental I found

And I'm never looking back No I'm never looking back No I'm never looking back again

We all fall down Time keeps changing We all will hit the ground

Down a road less traveled, and I see my world beneath my wings And it's simple but it's crippled I found Down a road less traveled...
