

Sweet Suffocation

Edgewater

Crawling under lost in a perfect sin
What's my addiction to breathe
I will sleep and I will breath and I will scream
'Cause that's a part of me

Such a sweet suffocation

You were the victim lost in your innocence
What's your ambition to breath
And I will sleep and I will breath and I will scream
'Cause that's a part of me

Such a sweet suffocation it's my addiction
Such a sweet suffocation it's my religion

It's cold inside
What's it like to take apart me?
To lead you wrong to kill your dreams just wake up please
