

Aleister Crowley Memorial Boogie

Edguy

Look around
Wipe your shoes and step inside
Pass the gate
Take off your coat and leave your life behind

Bad company will bears no company at all
Divinity! Take off your head and skin
Take off your mind

Feel it arise and eyed unfold
About their evil schemes, the circle is told, yeah

You're killing rock, dead like a dog
The spectre is raving
Out in the street they dance to the beat
Farewell my lovely
You're killing rock dead like a dog
And the spectre is raving

Shining beauty from your glossy TV screen
High resolution god of twinkle
Pimples run away

I desire: I am you and you are me
We are the fullest pale
The never tiring nightingale

Raising a laugh from down below
Don't run to me as I will have told you

You're killing rock dead like a dog
The spectre is raving
Out in the street they dance to the beat
Farewell my lovely
You're killing rock deadlike a dog
And the spectre is raving

You're killing rock dead like a dog
The spectre is raving
Out in the street they dance to the beat
Farewell my lovely
You're killing rock dead like a dog
The spectre is raving
Out in the street they dance to the beat
The spectre is raving
