

Misguiding Your Life

Edguy

A dawn on the run, nowhere to hide in a life of Corruption, insanity has won, living in hate
And preaching destruction
I'm screaming tonight, my vengeance
To fight has killed all morality
The cries of the toll and madness control
And liberate my energy - Axe to the wax !

Misguidin' your life, you'll reach
The empire of madness
I will be rife, driven by insanity or hate
Misguidin' your life, you'll reach
The empire of madness
I will be rife, driven by insanity

Lunacy and rage are raving in my head, reign
Back to back, c'mon be my slave, the beauty
In your face will be fading to black
