

Open Sesame

Edguy

I got the power of the second sight
And I can see what's mine
I was bound to attain my ends
At the dawn of time

When the laughter got contagious
My conduct has turned outrageous
I can breathe my words into your brain

What it takes is fire and a pie-in-the-sky
And rage and a Casio and bad eyesight

For the fine print mumbo jumbo
Disappears next to the number
You just sign (yeah)
For the whole world knows your name

With a vengeance and a song
I'm a blinding supernova
I'm rising to the night sky
A machiavellian musketeer
And I'm a force of nature
And I have come for you

Open Sesame!
I won't waste no time to wait
Open Sesame!
Death or glory, not afraid

Open Sesame!
Let me satisfy your needs
Open Sesame!
Right into your ribald dreams

I was born for the quest of the holy grail
And I am safe in the knowledge
I am gonna prevail

Haughty and imperious
I am funny and mysterious
I will make you dream of being me

For the money, for the fame
For the glory, for the power
For you know my name
And my splendor's gonna tower

Like a lighthouse for the lonely
I'm gonna be the one and only guiding light
I'm the God of love and thunder
Paganini with a million Watts
I'm defying my explanation
I'm spectacle of nature

The Napoleon of the rock
4 foot 4 determination
And you won't stand the siege

Open Sesame!
I won't waste no time to wait
Open Sesame!
Death or glory, not afraid

Open Sesame!
Let me satisfy your needs
Open Sesame!
Right into your ribald dreams

With a vengeance and a song
I'm a blinding supernova
I'm rising to the night sky
A machiavellian musketeer
And I'm a force of nature
And I have come for you

Open Sesame!
I won't waste no time to wait
Open Sesame!
Death or glory, not afraid

Open Sesame!
Let me satisfy your needs
Open Sesame!
Right into your ribald dreams
