

Out of Control

Edguy

Into a place of darkness. He was born to live alone
He got one big desire. One day he'd get the crown
Hey devil come on help me now
Be the one to pull my string
Let me be your slave to serve you
To let me be the king
Just give me a sign
Take on my mind and let me stay blind
A victim of life too weak to be king

Out of control - My life is a chamber of tears, fear and hate
Out of control - Help me to gain the crown, here is my fate

Wherever I may roam there will be hate and pain eye for eye, tooth for tooth. respect is what I gain
I look up to Mr Crowley. evil powers now unite!
I will be your darkest nightmare my life is a fatal fight

Just give me a sign
Take on my mind and let me stay blind
A victim of life too weak to be king

"listen up my friend you just cry for a hand but you only pretend that you're bad. Now!"

We'll take on my mind
