

Everyone I Know

Edie Carey

She's in the rowboat Tears of laughter flooding her face She's bailing out her sinking ship
He's on the shore
He's knee deep in the water Clutching his life preserver
For dear life

She falls in love like she's going to the market Embracing each lover with ready arms
He sleeps alone holding out for princess charming Stuffing his hands in the pockets of those old jeans

She thinks that she's really living life
And he thinks that she's reckless and careless But they've got the same blood
but different ways
Just let it be that way
Just let it be that way

She lays it all out right on the table
She ain't got no secrets
He doesn't speak unless he's spoken to
And he keeps it all close to the vest

She says 'I love you' like it's 'pass the salt dear'
She makes it known before they slip away He whispers 'I love you' like it's a four letter word It's his gift to only one woman

She thinks that she's
And he thinks that she's reckless and careless They've got the same blood
but different ways
Just let it be that way

I know you've walked through more life than I But I've seen some things in these 20 years
And you can draw me all the maps of the falling places But the only way I'll find them is if I go there myself I'll do it myself

Because I know that I'm really living life
And I know you think that I'm reckless and careless But we've got the same blood but different ways
