

Days Of Innocence

Ednita Nazario

When I close my eyes
I am dancin in the rain... again
I become a child
Not a worry hanging on my skin

I rewind to a time When my dreams were made and I was not afraid

To just take a chance
jump around and dance
I could reach the moon Hangin' on my red balloon
painting rainbows in the sky
two little hands
playin' in the sand
disn't have a care
I wish I could go there
go there back to the days I miss
the days of innocence

Life was just a word and I was going through it unrehearsed I would run all day chase the sun until it dropped away

From now on I will be that llittle child inside of me

To just take a chance
jump around and dance
I could reach the moon
two little hands
disn't have a care
go there back to the days I miss
the days of innocence

Nothing's bad
It's ok
can the child inside come out and play?

Gonna take a chance
jump around and dance
gonna reach the moon
two little hands
without a care
I know I will go there go there back to the days I miss
