

Colombian Girl

Edward Maya

Today is probably that day
When i'll forget again that's your birthday
But you should've known you are my heart
Because you are, My Colombian Girl!

By now you should probably know
I cheated with your girl next door
But your problem is you won't let it go
Because you are, My Colombian Girl!

But you cheated with my brother, uuuhhh
I'm sure you thought he's like no other
As you see - I know, come on, let it go
And then let's party all together,
My Colombian Girl!

That day when the sun walked away,
I've slept with her sis anyway
But you should know you are my heart
Because you, you're my,
My Colombian Girl!

I did it but you should never know
By now you'd be probably gone
But you should know you are my heart
Because you mmmmm,
My Colombian Girl!

But you cheated with my brother, uuuhhh
I'm sure you thought he's like no other
As you see - I know, come on, let it go
And then let's party all together,
My Colombian Girl!

But you cheated with my brother, uuuhhh
I'm sure you thought he's like no other
As you see - I know, come on, let it go
And then let's party all together,
My Colombian Girl!

But you cheated with my brother, uuuhhh
I'm sure you thought he's like no other
As you see - I know, come on, let it go
And then let's party all together,
My Colombian Girl!
