

(I Know) I'm Losing You

Edwin McCain

Your love is fading, I can feel your love fading
Woman it's fading away from me

'Cause your personal touch has grown cold
As if someone else controls your very soul
I fooled myself as long as I can
Can feel the presence of another man

It's there when you speak my name, it's just not the same
Oh, honey I'm losing you
I can feel it in the air, it's there everywhere
Oh, I'm losing you

I can feel it in my bones, any day you'll be up and gone
Oh, I'm losing you
It's all over your face, someone's takin' my place
Could it be that I'm losing you?

When I look into your eyes a reflection of a face I see
Oh Lord I'm losing you
I'm hurt, downhearted and worried, girl
'Cause that face doesn't belong to me

Your love is fadin', can feel it fadin'
Oh, away from me
Can feel it in the air, it's there everywhere
Ooo, I'm losing you

I don't wanna lose you
But I know I'm gonna groove you
Oh Lord I'm losing you

Get out, woo

Ooo yeah, get down there
Get down there

I don't wanna lose you
But I know I gotta groove you
Oh Lord I'm losing you
And I'm losin' you

Oh yeah
Oh yeah
Oh yeah

Your love is fadin', I can feel it fadin'
Oh Lord I'm losing you
