Sorry To A Friend

Edwin McCain

Sittin' on the edge Looking for songs in a bottle Talking with strangers who don't know my pain Blurry eyed and burned out Choking on more than I can swallow Crack in a little voice called out my name

She said - Whatever happened to you It's been two years where have you been And I guess all my fears were true The words were all gone the time's been too long But I deserve to know what happened to my friend

Staring in her face I see a past that still haunts me The road where we split up is paved with the things I didn't sa Y We had wonderful times, but terrible timing Now just leave her alone, I'll just be in the way

She said - Whatever happened to you You took the coward's way out again And I guess all my fears were true The words are all gone, the time's been too long But it's not too late to say I'm sorry to a friend I'm sorry to a friend Sorry to a friend

Like a stone in a stream Life smoothes all our edges 'Til we barely make a ripple any more But those times in my life will live with me forever But we're not the same people that we were before And I'm sorry for the smiles we missed and the times that I ble w it I've got so much to tell you I don't know where to start Maybe I'll find a way maybe you'll help me do it 'Cause friends like us should not be apart

And I'm sorry to a friend Well now I'm sorry
