Apple Trees

We were on this car trip, And I was looking at these rows and rows of trees all along the highway. I don't know what kind of trees, apples or something. There were just like thousands and thousands of rows of a thous and trees each. And I picked one tree that I could see about eight trees back i n this one row in the middle. Just one in a billion. And that's how I felt.