

Morning Time

Eiffel 65

Morning time,

now...

time....

Morning time,

I sit and watch the sun arise,
and everything seems so different now,
than it was just before.

Dawning sun,
as you go down my soul will run,
I feel it all slip away.
Slip out of my hands

I realize as I see
All the people holding tight,
as I leave the world tonight, yeah eh
meeting the light.

I realize as I see
All the people holding tight,
as I leave the world tonight, yeah eh
meeting the light.

Morning time,
I sit here looking all around,
And everything seems so colourful,
And life's a miracle.
Dawning sun,
I here in the wind your sweet hum,
I feel it all slip away,
Slip out of my hands,

I realize as I see...

Morning time
Oh it's Morning time
Dawning sun
You will run away.

I feel it all slip away,
Slip out of my hands.

I realize as I see...
