

Silicon World

Eiffel 65

Cause all that I want is a silicon girl.
so come into my silicon world.
cause all that I want is a silicon girl.
so come into my silicon, silicon world.
cause all that I want is a silicon girl.
with silicon lips and silicon hair.
sha la la, la la la you're my silicon girl
so come into my silicon world.

Cause all that I want is a silicon girl.
with silicon lips and silicon hair.
sha la la, la la la you're my silicon girl
so come into my silicon world.

I was flying with my mind,
I was trying to see.
how this world it could have been,
without you.
silicon big trees,
in my world of dreams.
all of this and so much more.

I was flying with my mind,
looking around me.
and I see there's no more room in my human thoughts.
in the internet.
everything I get.
and the plastic dreams of what?
