

I Let Go

Eighteen Visions

Could you, maybe,
Stop this from happening?
And I know it hurts, but
You don't have to walk away

And I don't know why
I want to stop myself from feeling low
And I don't know why
Lies know my name and lies I show

And I don't know why
I want to stop myself from feeling low
And I don't know why
I don't know why I even try

I can't be that way
When my life looks this grey
So I let go
I let go

And I don't know why
I want to stop myself from feeling low
And I don't know why
Lies know my name and lies I show

And I don't know why
I want to stop myself from feeling low
And I don't know why
I don't know why I even try

I can't be that way
When my life looks this grey
So I let go
I let go

I can't be that way
When my life looks this grey
So I let go
I let go

I've gotta leave it alone this time
Or I'll wallow in my mind
I've gotta leave it alone this time
Or I'll wallow in my mind

I've gotta leave it alone!
I've gotta leave it alone!
I've gotta leave it alone!
I've gotta leave it alone!

I can't be that way
When my life looks this grey
So I let go
I let go

I don't understand
Why clouds sit on my head

It looks like rain
I feel shame

I can't be that way
When my life looks this grey
So I let go
I let go

I don't understand
Why clouds sit on my head
It looks like rain
I feel shame

I can't be that way
When my life looks this grey
So I let go
I let go

I don't understand
Why clouds sit on my head
It looks like rain
