

Millstone

Eisley

Tell me why I'm discontented
Will I die without the details in my hands?
I feel these vines surrounding my heart, oh whoa
I fear I'm moving at a slower pace again
Tell me how this all unfolds

I can't find the secret to survive
To grow old safe and sound
Whoa, life is sifting through like the sands in the hourglass
There's not a moment to relive my time and space
There's not a moment to undo anything

How could I have been this careless, oh whoa
I fear I'm locked inside another cage again
Shake me from these torturous dreams where I keep screaming
Can't see how to overcome

'Cause I can't find the secret to survive
To grow old safe and sound
Whoa, life is sifting through like the sands in the hourglass,
whoa
There's not a moment to relive my time and space
There's not a moment to undo anything

Ooo
Ooo

I can't find the secret to survive
To grow old safe and sound
Whoa, life is sifting through like the sands in the hourglass,
whoa
There's not a moment to relive my time and space
There's not a moment to undo anything

There's not a moment to undo anything

Ooo...
