

Mr. Moon

Eisley

There i sat alone in the car the weight of what you'd done around me oh all around me and with the water rushing down my eyes it was all that i could do, not to scream but oh, it's alright, now it's over, oh baby, this was the night and oh mr. moon, shines down on my home, it's where i belong

without you

recall, i want a recall, you are crying on my telephone but oh no, oh no no no no bones crack and fingers blister, i might console you, but look at my sisters brilliant like fireflies up in their bedroom but oh, mister moon shines down on my home, it's where i belong

and oh, what can be said for the gift that has flown into my hand? in my hand

There i sat alone in the car, the weight of what you'd done around me all around me

Oh no, no no no
