

Sad Songs

El DeBarge

So sad, just another sad song, oh yeah
Sick and tired of sitting in this crib and staring at the man in the mirror
Ever since that she left I felt a beat down in my chest hard
So many scars I can't remove it, it's so hard to get through it
And hitting the club won't do it

I'm in this empty room playing my piano
Singing nothing but sad songs, sad songs
I'm so alone no one's here but these bottles
Oh what a sad song, sad song

I shouldn't have got up on one knee and
Made you feel like you were the only one I needed
Girl I gave you my heart for the keeping
All the love I put in your heart was deleted, yeah

Baby you took advantage, look at me damaged
This is not how we planned it, yeah
The light's are down, no one's around, tell me what it's all about
As the tears roll down my face, time just won't erase
What we have can't come back, stuck in the past what the hell was that?
Girl I miss ya, why did you quit us?

I'm in this empty room playing my piano
Singing nothing but sad songs, sad songs
I'm so alone no one's here but these bottles
Oh what a sad song, sad song

And the melody that I tend to play, started when you left
In the key of loneliness I can't resist hoping for your best
I just know that the door closes when you leave
Only thing here is these memories and the sad songs haunting me

I'm in this empty room playing my piano
Singing nothing but sad songs, sad songs
I'm so alone no one's here but these bottles
Oh what a sad song, sad song

Sad, sad, sad, sad, sad song
Sad, sad, sad, sad song
Sad, sad, sad, sad song
