

The Other Side

El DeBarge

Hollow, such a lonely place, such a lonely place, oh
Such a lonely place without you, oh ah
My heart is aching me what should I do? Oh ah
We were playing with both fears are forever, oh ah
Until that clock tick-tock now was never, oh ah, oh ah
It's a shame same thing that you love so much can make you hurt that much on the other side, Oh ah, oh ah, oh ah,
Oh why did you leave you know I believe and now I'm left to gri eving for you Shames like time standing still with a... didn't feel, every st ep is a treacherous move, oh ah, oh ah It's not fair losing to a dangerous... you took much too long t o wait upon Somewhere between heaven and earth it all got lost where has it gone, the horror, horror
It's a shame same thing that you love so much can make you hurt
that much on the other side,
Oh ah, oh ah, oh ah, oh ah, oh ah, oh ah
