Hollow, such a lonely place, such a lonely place, oh Such a lonely place without you, oh ah

My heart is acing me what should I do? Oh ah

We were playing with both fears are forever, oh ah

Until that clock tick-tock now was never, oh ah, oh ah

It's a shame same thing that you love so much can make you hurt that much on the other side,

Oh ah, oh ah, oh ah,

Oh why did you leave you know I believe and now I'm left to grieving for you

Shames like time standing still with a... didn't feel, every st ep is a treacherous move, oh ah, oh ah

It's not fair losing to a dangerous... you took much too long to wait upon

Somewhere between heaven and earth it all got lost where has it gone, the horror, horror

It's a shame same thing that you love so much can make you hurt that much on the other side,

Oh ah, oh ah, oh ah, oh ah, oh ah
