

Enchantment (dance With A Storm)

Elane

Break adrift, break adrift
Follow me into the crowd
Take my hand, take my kiss
And enjoy this bliss

Come undone, come inside
Into tonight's embrace
And the world and its grace
Is our oyster tonight

Just for the blink of an eye
You are mine
Just for some temporary bliss
Take this kiss

You're the light of the sacred
Give me your warmth
I'm the eye of the cyclone
Dance with a storm

Into the arms of enchantment
Till a new break of dawn
A new break of dawn
