

Eyes Of A Stranger

Elane

Through the eyes of a dreamer
she can watch herself
being one with mankind
-but she never had been

Through the eyes of a fool
she can watch herself
spending time with dreaming
-cause theres no time within

With the eyes of a mantis
she is coming close
with a kiss to remember
-to give the overdose

"Come and take my place see how you look in blue step into the maze of jigsaw and clue"

"The mirror of eyes is leading your way theres silence and sighs in the end in the end
two strangers will stay"

Through the eyes of a lover
she can watch herself
summer raindrops just falling
-to touch her naked skin

Through the eyes of a stranger
she can watch herself
most skin as reptile
-living for the sin

With the eyes of a mantis

Witness the play of the circles of rain dropping from leaves into rivers and lakes silvery water is here to be pure heaven is open to send me a cure

Strangers are coming and strangers will go give you the gift of new wings to unfold distance is shrinking between you and me when we connect our minds to be free

Open your eyes
-open your arms

open your eyes
-open your arms

Open your eyes
