On And On

Elane

Through night's grey veil he rode accompanied by moon and stars, he found the path the secret tale was true

On and on, have faith, be strong and find the place from ancient tales

The ancient pathway led to myriads of tiny sparks in hollow boles they lived to tell from trav'llers' hearts

On and on, you'd faith, were strong and found the place from ancient tales on and on, have faith, be strong to leave this place from ancient tales
