

Trace Of The Flames

Elane

sky is so endless and red we dance the dark ones, we dance the dark ones away leave all those things behind we move in thyme fog dive in the firewind

the trace of the flames
the light of the torches
that will never end
so try to reach heaven
so try to reach heaven... I know...

all fairies dance with us we let us fall, we let us fall in the wind. and when I cry for you will you stay here, will you stay here when I ask?
