Never Is a Long Time

Eleanor Friedberger

The hour is almost over The day is turning on a dime I'll never roll with you in clover And never is a long time

We are less than nothing Nothing is a perfect rhyme I'll never have your loving And never is a long time

And I've had a glimpse of the infernal I've witnessed the sublime But nighttime is eternal And that's a long, long, long time

Sometimes the hands stop moving Some clocks won't ever chime We were our own undoing And never is a long time

Now it's snowing in November Hiding all of summer's crimes All the things I'll never remember Never is a long, long time
