

Ain't It a Drag

Electric Light Orchestra

How many times can you go through the thing
Just when you think it's cool, the shit hits the fan

Tomorrow brings the same old sun, but never shown our way
Ain't it a drag babe, ain't it a drag babe, Oh what a drag babe
You're telling me, you're telling me

I took the last pane out just to see the pretty view
Try to hold on to the edge, to see what you would do

You're telling me, you're telling me

You go your way, and I go mine
We'll never meet, until the next time

Tomorrow brings the same old sun, but never shown our way
Ain't it a drag babe, ain't it a drag babe, Oh what a drag babe

(ain't it a drag, ain't it a drag)
Ain't it a drag (ain't it a drag)
Ain't it a drag (ain't it a drag)
