

Love and Rain

Electric Light Orchestra

It takes a lot of rain, to make a flower grow
Yes it takes a lot of, love and rain (love and rain)
And it makes a lot of pain, to see you steppin' out
Yes, it makes a lot of, love and rain (love and rain)

Love and rain, keep coming back again
oooh, love and rain (love and rain)
(love and rain)

Love and rain, oh the pleasure and the pain
Never feels the same again, for love and rain (love and rain)

Love and rain, keep coming back again
oooh, love and rain
(love and rain, lo-ove and rain)
(love and rain, lo-ove and rain)
(love and rain, lo-ove and rain)
(love and rain)

Love and rain, keep coming back again
Love and rain (love and rain)
Love and rain (love and rain)
yeah (love and rain)
Love and rain
