

She's White

Electric Six

I was born a prisoner in your dungeon of flesh, ooh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Solitary confinement underneath your dress, ooh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
And I broke those shackles, I bent those bars
I got out of that
And drove away in my car
I've got a new girl now
She don't understand me
But she's getting on well

And she's white WHITE
She is so white
She's white like the light
Never like the night
And she's white WHITE
She is so white
I was born to excite her
She could never be whiter tonight

I was born a hunter in your jungle of sin, ooh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
And I know it's a sport but she let me win, ooh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
And I shot those arrows, I flew them far
I returned right by, and she shot me in the heart
I've got a new girl now
She don't understand me
But she's getting on well

And she's white WHITE
She is so white
She's white like the light
Never like the night
And she's white WHITE
She is so white
I was born to excite her
She could never be whiter tonight
Tonight
Come on

I was born a dancer in your disco of fire, ooh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
And the beat of the rythem elivating me higher, ooh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Well I scratched that record, I stopped that show
I got on that mike and then I let you know
I've got a new girl she's six feet tall
I'm gonna run her up the wall

And she's white WHITE
She is so white
She's white like the light
Never like the night
And she's white WHITE
She is so white
I was born to excite her
She could never be whiter tonight
Tonight
