Forbidden City

There's not a hope While you're in this kind of mood Too much to drink But not enough to lose

You tore me apart Now I've got to suffer I wish I'd been around When you started this

Give me a chance I'd show you what I could do You're in a trance And I'm not so fond of you

You may be a friend But not my relation But you're the only person I ever knew

And it's too late to wash my hands We're caught in a trap set for a man

There is a wind That blows in the northern sky Pulling me back No matter how hard I try

If I had the sense I'd leave here tomorrow I wouldn't even bother To say goodbye

But it's too late to wash my hands We're caught in a trap set for a man

Would you lie to me? You thought I was wrong You deserted me When it all went wrong Would you lie to me? Would you lie to me?

Would you lie to me? You thought I was wrong You deserted me When it all went wrong?

And it's too late to wash my hands We're caught in a trap set for a man

But it's too late to wash my hands
 (Would you lie to me?)
We're caught in a trap set for a man

(Would you lie to me?) We're caught in a trap set for a man
