Missing Persons

There's a sleepy hollow tale 'bout the two who perished, gone forever

Their house was a blaze A crime was committed a fire did rage Jealousy played it's part Suspicious lies, pointing fingers

Missing persons Disappeared together Missing persons Are they gone forever

Tales of two young newly weds Happily they built their house together

Little did they know A plot was conceived To get rid of them both A friend with a jealous heart The perfect crime, they'd all believe

Missing persons Disappeared together Missing persons Are they gone forever Missing persons Not a trace left to be found Missing persons Will the guilty ones be exposed Nobody knows

No... one... knows... no-one knows No... one... nobody knows
