

I'm Your Girl

Eleni Mandell

I'm your girl
Step right up, boy
You're the winner
I know you've been going
For a long, long time
But I'll make you feel like a beginner
The night will be our canopy
We can walk down the street
It don't matter to me

I got left, I got right
Some girls are sweet
You know I'd rather fight
I bet you take a hand
I bet you hop a train
Los Angeles went crazy
San Francisco went insane
Step right up, boy
Count to three
We can walk down the street
It don't matter to me

I'm your girl
I see the light
I'm gonna walk you through
The Tenderloin tonight
I bet you know a man can run
I bet you wrap us up, baby
I bet we come undone
The moonlight shines down
Through the trees
We can walk down the street
It don't matter to me
