

Midnight Hauler

Eleni Mandell

Midnight hauler, take us home
Fast as a flash of light
Wherever I'm going
Every night you beat on the drums, you beat on the dashboard
And raise your fist at the other drums

Midnight hauler, where we're wrong?
Mean like a cross when kicking of the stone
Every night you beat on the drums, you beat on the dashboard
And then you spend for the other drummers

It's off like a kitten when you love your woman
You know you're a sweet heart when you rest it in your bones
I never knew a man who could swear up and down
I know you're a sweet heart when you're feeling alone

Midnight hauler, it's time to go
Up against the bumper and you're honking your...
Every night you beat on the drums, you beat on the dashboard
Then you pass for the other drummers

It's off like a kitten when you love your woman
You know you're a sweet heart when you rest it in your bones
I never knew a man who could swear up and down
I know you're a sweet heart you ain't friendly no more
I know you're a sweet heart you ain't friendly no more
I know, I know, I know, I know
