

Sun's Always Shining (in Rome)

Eleni Mandell

The steady flow of rain I know
I'll start to weep and moan
But here am I
My eyes are dry
Cause the sun's always shining in Rome

I know someday
I'll fall in love to stay
Maybe the man from Munich will come
And meet me at the Coliseum

The weather here
I'll shed a tear
It hurts to be alone
Now look at me
I'm wild and free
Cause the sun's always shining in Rome

I know someday
Maybe the man from New York will come
And meet me at the Coliseum
