

You're All Bad (and That's Why You've Been Invited)

Eleni Mandell

Come on baby, won't you take a look around
Moon's up high, light's down low
Have another drink now we're ready to go

Don't tell me that you're no good
'Cause I knew it from the first time I laid my eyes on ya
Don't tell me that you're no good
'Cause you're all bad and that's why you've been invited

Come on baby, put a record on let's dance
Side to side, down on the floor
This a little girl gonna take you for a whirl

Don't tell me that you're no good
'Cause I knew it from the first time I laid my eyes on ya
Don't tell me that you're no good
'Cause you're all bad and that's why you've been invited

Come on baby, won't you take a look around
Someone's mean and looking for a fight
Somebody is sweet gonna rock you tonight

Don't tell me that you're no good
I knew it the very first time that I saw ya
Don't tell me that you're no good
You're all bad, oh yeah
