

Last Word

Elevation Worship

The storm rises from the deep
And rages around me
But I will remember
When doubt wars within my heart
The battle almost lost
I will remember

You have the last word
It is finished
You have the last word
It is finished
My fear is silenced in Your love
My hope is endless

Your voice that calmed the violent sea
Speaks courage over me
So I will remember
The words that wake the sun to rise
Are breaking through my night
And I will remember

You have the last word
It is finished
You have the last word
It is finished
My fear is silenced in Your love
My hope is endless

Your word stands through the ages
Your voice shatters the darkness
In You we are more than conquerors
You speak and strongholds surrender
Your name overcomes the enemy
In You we are more than conquerors
[x2]

You have the last word
It is finished
You have the last word
It is finished
My fear is silenced in Your love
My hope is endless

Your word stands through the ages
Your voice shatters the darkness
In You we are more than conquerors
You speak and strongholds surrender
Your name overcomes the enemy
In You we are more than conquerors
