

Now Is The Word

Eleven

You honestly a lie, somber smile had enough
I swore I'd hold it back, but I can't
Not with you, this I will do
An open door into all
It will be you, it's coming

Hear it loudly, feel it softly
See it lightly, hold it tightly

And now to live
Live as you could
Not be afraid
Strangled by should
And now to clear
All this away
And now to start
Again, again I feel it
Now is the word of the day

You helpless I say no
It's just a trick of your mind
Just watch it go
When it moves you will stay
Always stay, it's what you do
