

Yesterday's Glues

eleventyseven

The stars are moving on and I am staying home and I can't help but ask myself where did I go wrong? It had to be this way there's nothing left to say it never helps to hear that things will be okay.

You may not remember me but I remember you and years can hide y our memories and what you used to do

If I could make this go away I'd wish that it was so, cause I sh ould never have come here but I wanted you to know time is harsh and won't forgive the way we have to live sometimes the only thing to say just get in the way

I always knew that I could never live a lie and maybe if I'd le t this go things will be alright I tried again today to make this go away it never helps to hear that th ings will be okay.
