And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared them selves to sound. The first angel sounded, and there followed ha il and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the ear th: and the third part of trees was burnt up and all green gras s was burnt up. And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; and the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the th ird part of the ships were destroyed. And the third angel sound ed, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upo n the fountains of waters; and the name of the star is called W ormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was sm itten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of th e stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven , saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants o f the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpets of th e three angels, which are yet to sound!
