

Tightrope

Eli Lieb

Your lights dimmed my breath away
I took my bow and left the stage
But you kept on wanting more
But I just couldn't stay

Tight rope walking fire breathing
I'm losing sight of you again tonight
I'm sleep walking trapeze falling
I'm losing sight of you again tonight

Your tongue ripped my voice away
And I bled out all on the stage
And you kept on taking more
And I just couldn't stay

Tight rope walking fire breathing
I'm losing sight of you again tonight
I'm sleep walking trapeze falling
I'm losing sight of you again tonight

Now that you're gone I can breath again
I won't back down this time

Tight rope walking fire breathing
I'm losing sight of you again tonight
I'm sleep walking trapeze falling
I'm losing sight of you again tonight
