

Here's To You

Eli Young Band

Just like some old romantic movie
Everything's in black and white
We just couldn't get along together
So we're lettin' go tonight
Before we let the credits roll
Here's a toast to the days of old yeah...

Here's to you, to all the things we held on to
Secrets that no one else knew
Here's to you, the good and bad that we went through
It's over now we know it's true, so..
Here's to you

We'll find ourselves caught up in memories
Thinkin' back to the way things used to be
Our minds will never let us be alone
Holdin' on to a piece of you and me
I know we can't dwell on the past
But there's nothing we regret, nothing we would ever take back, yeah...

Here's to you, to all the things we held on to
Secrets that no one else knew
Here's to you, the good and bad that we went through
It's over now we know it's true, so...so...so..
Here's to you yeah...

Here's to you....
