Mystery In The Making

Eli Young Band

The night time air's like a baptism And the way I'm feeling right now is strange I think it's time to make some changes 'Cause right now my outlook has changed

I feel like a dance that's lost it's rhythm A compass that can't fine it's way But there's a headlight shinning clearly Down a gravel road just off the interstate

Take away the mundane Calling on a new campaign Starting over now has got a real good ring And under this circumstance It's giving me a second chance Gonna trade a little peace for the suspense I'll let it fall wherever it'll take me I love a mystery in the making

If I knew how long I'd be living I'd rearrange a few habits of mine But tonight there's a full moon above me A set of rules that tonight I can't abide

Take away the mundane Calling on a new campaign Starting over now has got a real good ring And under this circumstance It's giving me a second chance Gonna trade a little peace for the suspense I'll let it fall wherever it'll take me I love a mystery in the making

Oh I don't need a revelation Oh I don't even need a sign

Take away the mundane Calling on a new campaign Starting over now has got a real good ring And under this circumstance It's giving me a second chance Gonna trade a little peace for the suspense I'll let it fall wherever it'll take me I love a mystery in the making
