

I Followed You Home

Eliot Sumner

I guess I never really knew
The lengths that I would go for you
Is it dangerous to follow you back home
The lights were out, I turned the key
Strangely next to me
And your fragrance
You followed me back home

But I knew
That it was fading, wasn't just
It was such circumstance
'Cause I followed
I followed you back home
Yes I followed
I followed you back home

I guess I never really knew
The things that I could do for you
And must admit I didn't have a choice
I should have known you
You're not a victim, not alone
And I didn't know you have your own affairs

But I knew
That it was fading, wasn't just
It was such circumstance
'Cause I followed
I followed you back home
Yes I followed
I followed you back home
And if I could have done it again
I wouldn't change a thing
I guess our time had come
I guess our time had come

But I knew
That it was fading, wasn't just
It was such circumstance
'Cause I followed
I followed you back home
I followed you back home

I followed
I followed you back home
Yes, I followed
I followed you back home
I followed
I followed you back home
Yes I followed
I followed you back home
