Let My Love Lie On Your Life

Eliot Sumner

Turning the wheels of a possible future I'm comatosed yet so awake Fighting against all human nature An animal of a mindstate

You are a stranger and my new obsession Another planet forged It seems I had met my maker I didn't have a choice

So what is this thing that takes control of me Let my love lie on your life and let love lie on me

I'm driven to deep distraction Where does my focus lie? You are a dangerous obsession Not everyday applies but oh oh

I'm on the break of self-destruction
I need you in my life
I go into a deep depression
I go into a black hole

No one has ever left me So let my love lie on your life Let my love lie on your life Let my love lie on your life Let my love lie on your life

Oh I'm gonna give you what I cannot hold I wanna fucking overwhelm you Spirit lies on your life like a headstone Let my love lie on your life

I'm in a vunerable position I need you in my life When I woke up this morning Oh it felt so right

So let my love lie on your life
So let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
So let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
Let my love lie on your life
