Phoenix From the Ashes

We will rise from the ashes Many days and many years I tried to live how she told me But I was yearning for something more To fill the emptiness inside And it never was enough To fill me up And it never was enough For my restless mind Phoenix from the ashes Our wounds will be healed Phoenix from the ashes We'll be born again and rise Now that I have found a way To salvation I know I will be So much stronger than before Nothing will ever break me And it's gonna be enough To fill me up And it's gonna be enough For my restless mind Phoenix from the ashes Our wounds will be healed Phoenix from the ashes We'll be born again and rise We will rise from the ashes
