Beautiful Night

A beautiful night's a beautiful night its colourful soul's embracing my song and a cello's playing in my head just for me and a new desire is blowing sounds in my ear shall I go for a smile? Shall I or shall I keep it to myself? but I would share it with you if you could understand... a beautiful night's a beautiful night my happiness came like sand in the wind oh I think I saw a little poem falling off a star ... oh, I think I saw it choosing your eyes as a place to spend time ... shall I go for a smile? Shall I or shall I keep it to myself? but I could share it with you, if you can understand ... can I... can I step into your world? can I... can I step into your world? can I... can I step into your world? a cello's playing in my head just for me and a new desire is blowing sounds in my ear and I think I saw a little poem falling off a star ... and I think I saw it choosing your eyes as a place to spend time ... shall I go for a smile? Shall I or shall I keep it to myself? but I would share it with you if you could understand ...
