Stop calling me with a name stop talking about me I am nowhere you can see me stop thinking about me tomorrow nothing you'll find the same me not a yesterday to keep you here not a yesterday to make you stay, yeah

stop make yourself cry
stop thinking of what's right I'll love you like I love a flower
planning organizing

maybe I hear you maybe I feel you I'm listening to you might be all we need
