

Hold On for a Minute

Elisa

Never mind if your legs are shaking never mind all the words unspoken all the promises that were broken soon enough they'll be gone it ain't nothing but a good old handshake gotta leave them behind dark memories
all the bruises you showed nobody
soon enough they'll be gone
you gotta keep it together they're not doing you a favour now that you've tasted the flavour it ain't sweet it's only bitter you know you gotta try harder
watch it, cause soon they'll be gone so hold on my friend
stop crying
just know that you can!
Don't hold back again
hold on for a minute
hold on in a minute
the race will end and it'll all come up to the surface and the truth will be hot and burning in your face like the sun
you can!
hold on for a minute
hold on for a minute
hold on for a minute
hold on for a minute
hold on for a minute
hold on for a minute
hold on hold on gotta hold on
soon they'll be gone
Don't you hold back again
you can!

hold on!
Hold on!
