

So Delicate So Pure

Elisa

I'm losing my mind I'm falling apart I wanna feel you your heart and all I see is you I'm such a fool to treat you like I do when I take my fears and throw them all on you but it's you so delicate so pure enough to seem unreal (enough to seem unreal) yes it's you so delicate so pure it's so hard to believe

oh yeah
I love your laugh the way you say my name I want you to be hard I wanna know your pain I was so wrong, but now I see the truth I blame it on my youth and I'm coming back to you

but it's you so delicate so pure
enough to seem unreal (enough to seem unreal)

oh yeah
I love the way that you walk and the music in the way that you talk anybody gonna tell me that I'm crazy I know with all my jealousy it's hard to live with me yeah... yeah...

here in the dark I need you like a drug take anything you want the part of me you need wash over me, desire has a face I wanna make you see I've nowhere else to be but with you

but it's you so delicate so pure
enough to seem unreal (enough to seem unreal)
yes it's you so delicate so pure
